Older toddlers

Part Time

The da Vinci School has an opening for a part time (Monday through Friday) teacher for 2  $\frac{1}{2}$  -3 year old students in the upcoming 2023-24 school year.

The da Vinci School is a private, non-profit north Dallas preschool and kindergarten program, which has been in operation for 35 years. We are seeking an enthusiastic, creative and experienced teacher who loves tots and recognizes their learning capacity. This is not babysitting.

Applicant must have an education or other child development related degree as well as several years of teaching experience with this general age level. Other degree backgrounds may include speech-language, psychology, occupational therapy or other fields that provide significant child development training. Candidate needs to understand cognitive and motor development, and be able to provide a wide range of stimulating activities. Excellent oral and written communication skills are essential as well as a comfort level with computer technology for recording lesson plans, developmental checklists and assessments.

Our curriculum is science-based and uses an integrated, thematic approach to incorporate the full scope of developmental skills. We have fabulous students and caring, involved parents, small class size, and excellent teacher support.

This position is Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The school year calendar begins in mid-August with staff development; classes begin the end of August 2023. Summer work is also available during our summer camp program in June.

Please send a COVER LETTER and RESUME to: Mary Ann Greene, Director
